Web Sites in a Flash at a Price You Can Afford!

"Turnkey" Web Site Cost

There are two elements to the cost of your web site: 1) The set-up fee, and 2) The monthly cost.

Set up fees include locating and registering a suitable domain name; defining/creating the web site content; publishing your web site so that it is available to the general public; working with you to locate suitable graphics and photos (if desired); making recommendations for the site organization, colors, button designs, and initial graphics; and, adding the content that you provide.

The monthly cost is the actual cost of the site itself, invoiced annually in advance. It includes the server space, the domain name registration and renewal, and the hosting service fees. It also includes two sets of minor changes (page content, graphics, etc.) annually. Major changes are invoiced at $35/hr with a 30 minute minimum.

A note on domain names:

Many domain names are already registered and Connecting Folks cannot ever guarantee that a specific name will be available. We will work with you to locate and register a suitable name in the .com, .org, or .net domain.

Connecting Folks includes a domain name as a part of the service. The name, although registered and maintained by us, remains your property and can be transferred^{/c} to another registrar should you ever decide to cancel the service with us. Connecting Folks registers domain names on behalf of its clients as both a courtesy and an efficient means of ensuring timely renewal. We do not speculate in domain names nor do we hold on to a name when a customer requests its return.

^{/c} Domain name transfers must follow the rules established by ICANN, the international overseer of all domain names. While there are lots of other rules, here are the "big three" that affect site owners:

- 1) A newly registered domain is not eligible for transfer until after 60 days has elapsed.
- 2) If you allow the registration of a domain name to lapse, there is a 90 day recovery period before the domain name is once again available for public registration.
- 3) All transfers require an authorization key, which we will provide once all outstanding amounts are paid.

Site Set-Up

There are many decisions to be made during the site development phase. e.g. colors, header graphic design, navigation aids, etc. To expedite the process, we will make some of these decisions on your behalf and present them to you as a suggestion.

Site content, however, is not something Connecting Folks can do for you. You must provide the basic content. We may edit it for site consistency, but it is your responsibility to provide it.

Sites can be set up in a day or two if the site materials (graphics, text, etc.) are available. Development time is almost completely dependent on your efficiency getting the materials to us.
